

April 5, 2001 IACLEA Meeting Park Inn Suites, Shakopee

In Attendance:

Stephanie Torok-Hamline
Suzie Dugan-MSU, Mankato
Casey McCarthy-BSU
Jennifer Furan-MCTC
Fred Behr-St. Olaf
Matt O'Brien-UofM, TC
Curt Schmidt-MCTC
Jodi Inlow-St. Kate's
Shawn Vierzba-St. John's
Jim Schumann-St. Ben's
Terry Gorman-Macalaster

Steve McLaughlin-St. Thomas
Erle Steigauf-BSU
Beth Louden-WMCL
Derrick Skoglund-Bethel
Ben Schnabel-UofM, TC
Chris Gilbertson-St. Thomas
Ray Thrower-GAC
Lynette Raymond-St. John's
Sara Mulso-Concordia
Mike Cappelli-NCU

10:30 Meeting Begins

Jim Schumann stated that as of today, 60 people were registered along with 10 vendors.

Ray Thrower-talked about the tote bags to be given to each attendee. 125 black bags ordered for the conference. People are meeting at 4:00 on Saturday, April 27th to put together the tote bags.

Lynette and Jennifer-So far there are 6 people signed up for the Twins game which begins at 7:05.

Mike Cappelli-will be making notepads with iaclea logo on it.

Beth Louden-will provide folders for attendees to use. They will have William Mitchell logo on it.

Jim Schumann-went on to discuss bank account and who has and has not paid for the conference.

11:45 Lunch

It was mentioned that we will probably not be able to have the shoot for the conference. Bloomington is unable to help us out. Shawn Vierzba and Matt Churchill will be talking to John Pack as John has connections with Minnetonka P.D. to see if Minnetonka is willing to lend us the use of their range.

Fred Behr-Fred talked about golfing during the conference. There will not be a golf tournament, however, golfing is open to anyone who wants to play. There are arranged t-times. Golf will be played at Northfield Golf Club in Northfield. There is room for 20 people and it starts at 12:30. The tournament will not go longer than 6:00pm. Box lunches are provided for those who wish to golf. The drive is approximately 50 minutes to the golf course and the cost is $60 per person.

Jim and Shawn talked about the hospitality room and Jennifer and Lynette discussed the Mall of America and transportation.
It was asked that everyone participating in the conference be at the Park Inn and Suites by noon on Sunday, April 29.

12:40 Meeting adjourned